

El Toro a.k.a.
the "Great Park"

Proposed Lennar housing area

Area in red above is where one of the most toxic landfills at El Toro a.k.a. the "Great Park" remains. Instead of cleaning it up, the Navy has been working to cover it up instead. This is the area where Lennar is proposing to build and sell new homes to unsuspecting buyers. According to documents, the landfill contains radioactive and other toxic material.
